The Honorable Arthur T. Summerfield
 Postmaster General
 Post Office Department
 Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Mr. Summerfield:

You will recall that a short time ago you spoke to me concerning the possibility that Mr. [redacted] might be of service to us.

Since then I have talked to [redacted] and he has also had conversations with certain of our specialists here. Unfortunately after exploring rather fully the various ways in which we might utilize his services, we have not found a position suitable to his qualifications and commensurate with the salary his capabilities would warrant. However, we are keeping [redacted] very much in mind and should a suitable vacancy exist we shall be in further touch with him.

I certainly appreciate your interest in bringing [redacted] to my attention.

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles
 Director
